Oswego State students to exhibit their crafts

SARAH NESBITT, a senior at State University College at Oswego and a studio art major, works on a screen print.

They've been working hard for four years to perfect their crafts, and now the fine arts students from the college in Oswego are ready for prime time.

The State University College at Oswego will showcase their creations at an exhibition that opens this week at Tyler Art Gallery on campus.

The spring 2006 Bachelor of Fine Arts Exhibition officially opens with a public reception from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at the gallery. The exhibition, featuring work by students slated to graduate with bachelor of fine arts degrees, will run through May 19.

Tyler Art Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays and 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. weekends. For information, call 312-2113.
